KENTORIAL

FOREWORD

For the past few years the spirit of Kenmore High has been parodied in the engaging title THE BLUE DEVILS. To friend and foe alike this name, compounded of the school colors and an indomitable spirit to win, has become a byword.

In presenting the 1948 edition of the Kenitorial, we have endeavored to weave into the life of the school this new symbol of recognition, which has come to be identified with its achievements; in word and picture we leave this book as a memorial to the

The realization that Kenmore Senior High is one of the most progressive schools in western New York should make us more cognizant of the fact that this is the result of the splendid work and co-operative spirit of our Board of Education. This group of unselfish and capable men and women has given much valuable time to the careful planning of school policies. It is they, who look out for our general welfare, who provide us with proper medical care, and afford us the finest facilities for education. However, the work does not terminate here. The Board is also planning for much needed new facilities for extra schools for our district.

We as students at Kenmore High fully appreciate the work of our Board and sincerely hope that this tribute in our yearbook will be a measure of the gratitude we feel for the vital interest they manifest in making our school one of the finest in New York State.

Ah the Seniors—those self-sufficient, sedate and serene demigods who patronizingly pass their closing days among us, bestowing on all the benefits of their tutored minds. They are the unwitting embodiment of a paradox, how to remain self-assured in a world where they shall again be neophytes. For three long years they have struggled and aspired for one of those blue or white robes and that magic key to success—the diploma. We wish them well—but gosh, we'll miss them!

CLASS OF FORTY-EIGHT

CLASS POEM

What have we given of ourselves
To contribute to the Plan,
What have we done to help ourselves
By helping our fellow man,
Where is our place in the world today,
Where does a task await,
How big a part plays fate?

(To life opening up before us
Oh! Has life just begun
And do we feel so very old
Because we are so young?)

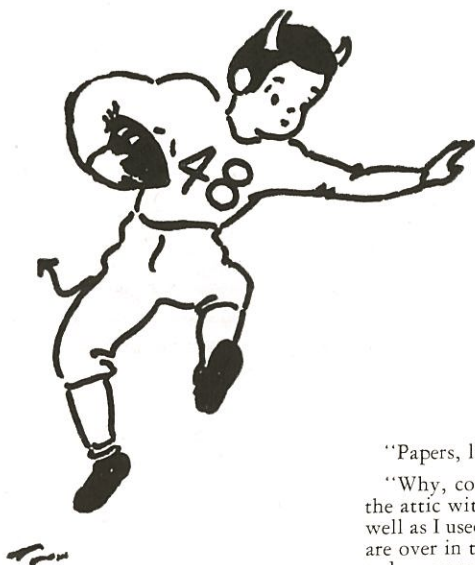

Is the world just made for people
Or the people for the earth,
Can you discover in the mind or soul
A person's value and true worth,
If the world is not made for dreamers
What is it made for then,
Are not the greatest accomplishments
Born in the souls of men?

(Is life opening up before us
Oh! Has life just begun
And do we feel so very old
Because we are so young?)

So, suddenly before us
The road is opening now;
And before we first step forward,
We must look back somehow.
Then realizing all we owe
To those who helped and help us yet
We thank you, though we can't repay
What in our hearts we'll ne'er forget.

JANE DONNER

CLASS

"Papers, lady? Got any old books or magazines for the paper drive?"

"Why, come to think of it, sonny, I must have lots of old papers if you want to come up into the attic with me and sort them out. Here now, help me up these stairs. I don't get around quite as well as I used to! That's it; now hand me my cane and we'll see what we can find. Ah yes—here they are over in the corner. My, oh my, just look at that dust! I guess it's a good thing you came along today, sonny; no one's been up here for years. I 'spect I'd better brush them off for you a mite before you take them, though. Don't want you getting your clothes all dirty!"

"My stars but those old books bring back memories. 'Tom Sawyer,' 'Robinson Crusoe,' 'The Bobbsey Twins,' 'Forever Am . . . ' Ah yes! Well, sakes alive, here's a book I'd completely forgotten I had—"The Memoirs of the Class of 1948."

"Say, now, there's a book that's really worth reading, sonny. Those were the days—when you could buy a pound of butter for ninety-three cents, and eggs were only sixty-five cents a dozen. But I guess that's a thing of the past. Why, I can still remember that night, June 25, 1945. That was the night we graduated from Junior High, sonny, all 427 of us. We were a good looking lot, we were—the girls all dressed in their pretty formals and the boys—why, we hardly recognized the boys. You see in those days, sonny, the boys didn't wear suits to school. They all had some kind of blue trousers with lots of pockets. I think they called them dungarees! Oh, I remember how scared we were up there on the platform, and how when it was all over, and the door of our Junior High days had closed behind the last one of us, we all felt just a little sad that we had to leave.

"But no one felt sad very long, because within a few days everyone was launched into a well-earned vacation, and all thoughts of school were dismissed until the following September, when we all trudged happily back to school.

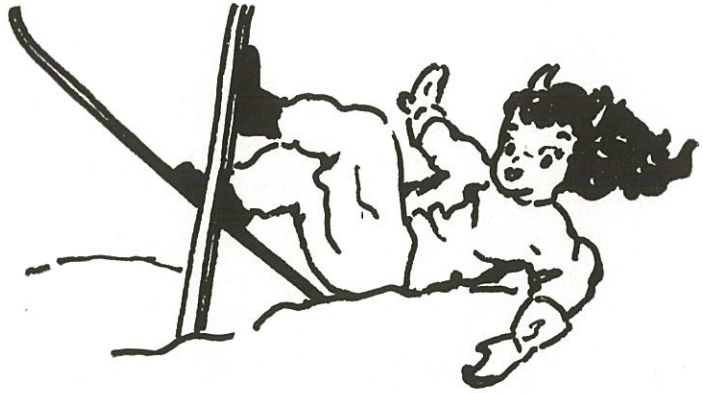

"I'll never forget that first day at the Senior High, sonny. How utterly lost we felt in an immense school where everyone was going somewhere and no one knew exactly where! The green blackboards and the P. A. fascinated us no end, and after about a week we finally got used to getting up fifteen minutes earlier, to be at school at 8:30 instead of the usual 8:45.

"To start the year off right, we elected Jack O'Neil president of our class, Shirley Larson vice-president, Peggy Cole secretary, and Bud Knisley—well, to be perfectly frank, sonny, we really didn't even need a treasurer at all that year, because fate wasn't too kind to us, and I can remember at the end of the year we couldn't afford to buy even a red pencil to enter our debts in the book.

"But we didn't discourage easily, and on May tenth we presented our Sophomore Show, the very first display of our acting ability, which was shown to great advantage because of the fact that we had made the setting an insane asylum. Exactly one week later, this great event was followed by our Sophomore Hop, the climax of the year, and then before we knew it we were in the midst of exams and another vacation had begun.

"After two glorious months in the summer sun, bronzed and happy we made our way back once again to the familiar portals of our alma mater. We were Juniors now, or in simpler words 'wheels,' which entitled us to strut about the halls with that certain air of importance and with our noses held just a wee bit higher. Within a short time we had elected Ann Masterson president of our class,

HISTORY

Jack O'Neil vice-president, Lou Paar secretary, and Shirley Larson treasurer, and were well on the way to another happy fun packed year. In November, all being loyal football fans, we trooped down to the civic stadium to watch our invincible Blue Devils in that thrilling game against North Tonawanda. I remember that particularly because we were dismissed one hour early from school in order that we might have a pep rally out on the athletic field. Sonny, you never saw such a game in all your life; those Kenmore boys could certainly play football! Our band performed well, too, although we were sorry we had not been able to supply them with better uniforms. We won the game 13-7, and it was an excited crowd that flocked out to Brinson's to celebrate our victory.

"Next on our agenda came our ever popular Christmas Dance, which, despite all the noise and confusion, managed to put everyone in that happy holiday mood. You would have liked that, sonny. There was a Christmas tree with lights, and we even had a Santa Claus who passed out candy kisses. Well, to say he passed them out is putting it rather mildly, because I remember very distinctly almost getting knocked out when Santa threw a handful of candy kisses right into my face.

"After Christmas we all settled down to normal living, and in February we planned a stupendous Junior Show. In fact it was so good that the faculty politely suggested that we have a Valentine Dance instead. With the money from this and from our Junior Prom on June 6, at which Don Case and Ann Masterson were chosen King and Queen, our treasury at last began to grow, and we were able to throw away our red pencil for good. In no time we found ourselves confronted by examinations and then off to vacation land again. Some of us tried our hands at working, while others soaked up the summer sun until it was time to return to our beloved alma mater for the last time.

"We all determined to make this year really count and started by electing Lou Paar president; Ann Masterson vice-president, Bill Doerr secretary, and Shirley Larson treasurer. Again we flocked down to the civic stadium to urge our team on in their biggest football game of the year—North Tonawanda. But this year it was a sad crowd of enthusiasts who filed mournfully home after being beaten 12-0. However, we were consoled by the appearance of our new band, complete with bright blue uniforms and majorettes.

"Following in close succession was our Senior Carnival, which turned out to be a great success, and for which lovely Phyllis Vance was chosen queen, and our Aquacade, which, with a cast of seventy, was the best yet.

"During the winter months, lots of us took to skiing, and I wish you could have seen us, sonny, coming to school all black and blue and covered with bandages.

"March brought our senior play, 'Home Sweet Homicide,' and the year was finally topped off by our beautiful Senior Ball. At last we were amid final examinations, the last we took in Kenmore High School. And finally that great day of graduation was upon us. I recall very clearly how we felt that day, when we awoke to realize for the first time that we were no longer children, but mature men and women ready to take our places in the world.

"Well, sonny, I guess that about winds up my story, and look here, I've talked all the afternoon and you don't have your papers collected yet! You just take these books and hustle along."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

A momentous year has at last drawn to a close. A year which will long be remembered in the hearts of everyone. As the door closes with a lusty bang, on goes the class of 1948. Maybe you're wondering who we are; well we're the custodians for the Class of '48.

You certainly would know the Class of '48 was here. There's Battie Dennis' famous book, "How To Get Your Man"; otherwise known as "Sketch Out Fellows, Here I Come."

Better here's Avalon Grant's famous Memo Plan! Better save that for some chubby junior girl. What's that piece of paper over there covered with dust? Looks like that famous slogan, "Skill In Hand, (Coon, Pritchard, and Elid)." The situation is skill in hand.

There's something that's stuck to it. Why it's an old Kenoscope. Lois Hayes certainly did a fine job as Editor-In-Chief. Better check to see if the auditorium is okay. Never can tell what Frances Chalup, Jack Miller, George Shebor, and Dolores Jones could have left behind the curtains. Guess it's about time we went up to the third floor. Better clean these stairs, they're so full of high heels over yonder! Wait a minute! Isn't that a pair of high heels over yonder? Must be Pat Carl's. Ann Babcock

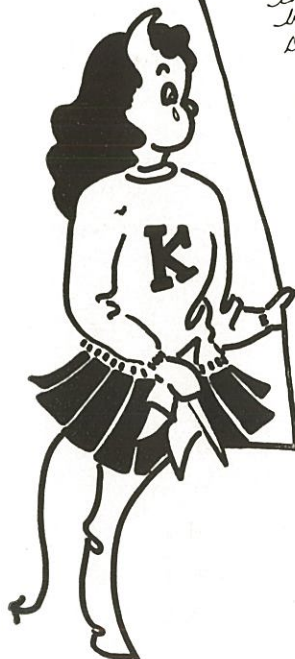

Will you look at all those desks piled against the wall with the great masterpieces on them. I bet some of those were done by Ted Yockum and Doris Peterson.

What can those things be hanging from the ceiling? Why it's a pair of suspenders! I'll bet they're Bud Otten's or Bob Kerwin's. And that pink tie could belong to none other than Sam Robinson. And are those Connie Callanan's crutches leaning against the elevator door? She must have forgotten them.

That blamed thing! I almost tripped over that can. Why it's a can of Ovaltine. So that's the secret of Sandra Bettwiler and David Stine. Close that locker over there! Shell of all things! A football uniform size 52. Better save that for Jerry Kosack.

Is that chlorine we smell? Why it's bathing suits left by John Yacos, Pat Roberts, and Jim Hicks. Bessie Millard and Gutch

CLASS PROPHECY

This is the year 1958! 1958, where life has been rejuvenated by atoms, rockets, and coke in every drinking fountain. 1958, where we, weary travelers from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Suffering Seniors, have emerged from darkest Africa, after spending years away from the outside world in search of the origin of "Civilization." In the midst of our venture, a certain nostalgic feeling gnaws at our heart strings and we know we must return to our old habitat at K. H. S. and those familiar landmarks we learned to love so well back in '48. We board our rocket ship and set off westward, bound for that metropolis of Kenmore.

As we step from the Kenmore Central Airport, we see a beautiful blue and white cab of the Sheridan Cab Company, owned and operated by Gordie Reed.

We hop in and journey down Delaware Avenue, where we notice many familiar sights, including a new and improved Alcobar, run by "Diamond" Jim Hicks, and a coke establishment recently opened by Nan Nelson and Eleanor Fronczak, charter members of the Kenmore chapter of Pepsi-Cola Anonymous. Lounging in the booths we see Lou Paar and Andy Podlucky, the place's steadiest customers. Sweeney's has been replaced by a haberdashery run by Dean Bensley. We hear he is an expert at fitting pants.

But wondering how Kenmore is being run now, we go over to the city hall, where we are ushered into the office of Mayor Sylvester Nye, who introduces us to his secretary, Doris Cunningham.

While waiting for Mayor Nye to finish some important business, we happen to pick up a newspaper and see in the headlines David Stein has added another degree to his long chain, already mounting into the hundreds. This time it is B.L.S. (Bachelor of Long Standing).

On the society page we see June Wiegand has finally accepted Paul Devitt's proposal of marriage. It's been a long, long time. Down in the corner is an advertisement for Don Pritchard's hermitage for happy bachelors.

On the sports page we see that the Kenmore Blue Devil's baseball team has just announced the signing of "Specs" Van Deusen, for the stupendous sum of $75,000 per season. His bobbing and weaving style in catching fly balls should be a great gate attraction.

On the comic page the current hero appears to be "Fearless Forkin," drawn by Ted Yochum.

Everyone is aroused at the coming of Jack Williams and his 100-piece orchestra, the largest dance band in the land. Featured in this massive aggregation are Merrill Hall on drums, and Bill Watson, who recently won the Downbeat poll for the 5th consecutive year. Williams is to appear at the Kenmore Music Hall in a gala show also featuring songstress Barbara Dean, comedian Bones Evans, and those foremost exponents of modern dance, Shirley Larson and Larry Mucha.

Along with this extravaganza is to be the huge water production of impresario Jack Miller, starring Pat Roberts, Nancy Ludeck, and the springboard specialist Ray Arnold.

We learn from Bill Callanan, who is to be emcee, that three local girls have gone a long way in the musical field—these three are Pat Earl and Peggy Gensler, now featured in the new show at the famed Diamond Horseshoe, "Up in the Clouds," and Jane Murch, who accompanies them on the piano.

These three have banded together with two other Kenmore girls, models Nancy Stilwell and Hazel Tarbell, into a Kenmore Alumni Society in the Big City.

Another local girl has reached the top of the legitimate stage. Frances Graley is now starring in the hit "Life with Roogie," written by Beverly Martin.

A very prominent candidate in the presidential race is Arthur Otten. The point that appeals to his following is that he will read the Sunday comics to all his loyal subjects if he is elected. Well, it worked for the "Little Flower," so why not for the "Big Bud!"

Well can we remember those school days when he was struggling with trig and physics as we read how Barry Milliard has hit upon a new scheme of rocketing cars to the moon. Too bad they haven't found a means of enabling people to reach there also.

The current hangout for Kenmore grads appears to be an elite establishment known affectionately as "Mothers," where the finest ginger ale in town is served. There we find Bud Knisley, Bill Bickerton, and Bill Myers.

Jim Musty has initiated a unique business. He has purchased an old mansion and redecorated it specifically for rental as a summer theatre—it must be the old playwright in him. His cohorts in this enterprise are Howie Kirkwood and Jim Nist.

As treasurer of the Hi-Y Alumni Association, Tom Polson is still trying to collect unpaid dues from Jack O'Neill, who is now cruising in his yacht, "The Hacienda," off Long Beach.

But no visit would be complete without returning to our old alma mater. So we return to the school, where we are greeted by Principal Bill Sanders. Mr. Sanders takes us on a tour of the school, where we see many familiar faces, including John Youra, now the custodian in charge of Tobacco Road, and Librarian Edith Chesley. Down in 241, we see Mr. Mooshie, now completely bald, mulling sadly over the problems of the 1958 Kenitorial.

The coach of the basketball team, "Roughem Toughem" Ken Varshay, informs us that "Bullet" Billy Doerr has just signed to play pro football for the San Francisco Starlets, sponsored by Dottie Dennis and Ann Masterson. What a fate! Coach Varshay tells us also that John Yacos was at school last year on his way back from his Olympic swimming triumphs in every free style race from the one yard to the marathon ten miles. This grind appeared to have little effect on Mr. Yacos, although protrusions similar to fins and webbing between his toes were apparent.

Recently presented with their doctorates after doing post graduate work at K. H. S. were Connie Callanan, Lois Hayes, and Ruth Penfold, who combined to write their thesis on "Homework, a Fate Worse Than Death."

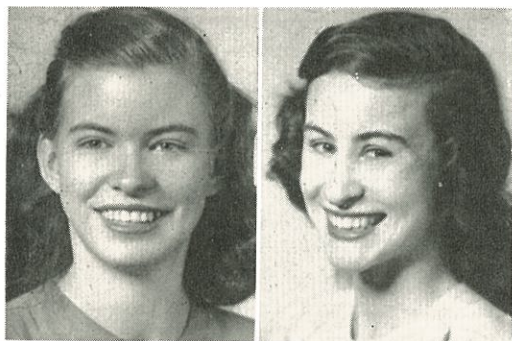

And still running around in search of identification sheets for Who's Who is Janet Beardslee, its editor-in-chief.

On our way back to the airport, we stop in at the offices of the Kenmore Press, which now has the widest circulation of any paper in the nation (except The Daily Worker). Editor Gretchen Dorries introduces us to her new associate editors, Janet Bogart and Phyllis Vance. Photographer Dick Sherer had just returned from taking pictures of the reopening of the Ten Pin Cub. While we are in the offices, several flashes of interest come in over the wire. Don Coon has just been selected to play the lead in the latest Tarzan picture. Dick Phinney has just won the American Bowling Congress Championship held in the City of North Tonawanda. Of special note to art lovers is the fact that E. Frank Moelich's masterpiece of wood carving, the "Passionate Pixie," has been awarded first prize in the contest conducted by the Rube Goldberg Foundation in Rockefeller Center.

Bob Stalker, Tonawanda's swimming coach, drops in to renew old acquaintances. He informs us that Bud Jones and Bill Harris have gone into the sporting goods business, Harris handling the needs of the skiers and Jones the girls (needs).

But time is growing short and our legs are growing weary. We must bid farewell and return to our ship and back to Africa. Having seen the sordid atmosphere of our erstwhile comrades, their various and sundry life pursuits, we are not reluctant to return to "Civilization" again. Ah Wilderness!

The Juniors—ah, those lush young Juniors—their's is a glorious world! Just released from infancy they are still unaware of the anxieties and perplexities of the final year. Those knowing creatures to whom, whatever is trivial, is important; whatever is important, is trivial. Their greatest asset is no longer being Sophomores; their greatest liability the thought that they were Sophomores once. The knowledge that they will soon be Seniors thrills them—and their most frequent phrase is "only one more year!"

The ubiquitous Sophomores—those moronic bipeds who invade our halls with the frenzied exhibitionism of one just released from a straight jacket—those eternal culprits, the lowliest of the lowly, overburdened with their inexperience, often seen floundering with bewilderment under the disdainful gaze of their upperclassmen. Their puerile minds dazed with osmosis, square roots, Herodotus and the fourth declension, they look forward to that delicious moment when they can be released from the agony of watching the clock and give themselves over to visions of better days ahead. . . . Our beloved Sophomores! What would we do without these infants of our school family!

OL LIFE

AQUACADE

A spectacle of beauty, achievement, and showmanship, the annual Aquacade has come to be a part of the Kenmore High scene. To Mr. Bollier and his staff we pay well-deserved tribute for the inclusion in our school life of this colorful exhibition which this year, more than ever before, demonstrated to the hundreds who saw the two day performance, how artistically aesthetics can be coordinated with aquatic performance.

The Student Council is the nucleus of student activities, unifying the student body, building up school spirit and promoting a close relationship between faculty and students.

This student government unit, made up of Mr. Freeman, adviser, Arthur Otten, the student council president, and the class officers, met weekly this year. Besides sponsoring the Community Chest Drive, the Junior Red Cross, and the March of Dimes, the Student Council again supported our adopted war orphan, Marguerite Geldolf, under the Foster Parent Plan for War Children, Inc.

Through the many successful dances sponsored this year the General Fund has been built up enabling the Student Council to pay for assemblies and to give a substantial donation to the Kenitorial.

STUDENT COUNCIL

First Row: C. Anderson, P. Leckie, J. Nesper, P. Beebe, S. Weaver, M. Herrmann, P. Condon. Second Row: P. Wirges, A. Switzer, J. Moore, Secretary; J. Donner, President; Miss Chittenden, Adviser; J. Loomis, Vice-President; J. Beardslee, E. Holmes. Third Row: R. Niedrauer, D. McDougall, W. Kuhn, D. Shirlaw, T. Polson, Treasurer; S. Good, J. Partis, P. Wildridge.

To become a member of this society one must submit an original manuscript acceptable to Miss Chittenden and the group. The goal of all these fledgling writers is to have his work published in "The Flame." The future authors of American Literature—not pulp magazines—may come from this humble beginning.

ALPHA PHI LAMBDA

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra completed another successful season under the direction of Mr. Ortolano's baton. It participated in many assemblies, a music carnival, and the spring music contest. It "mastered"! . . . anyway it played such difficult numbers as Rhumba and Finlandia, but in the eyes of everyone . . . that is, the student body, its greatest rendition was that of The Three Bears.

"The play's the thing" to the actors, actresses, grease paint artists, and those behind the scenes who comprise National Thespian Troupe 108. They have carried out their program very successfully this year under the leadership of Miss Strong. Its membership greatly increased since September. The group has held several theater parties and discussions on the Irish players, Russian theater, and various other subjects with a view toward making play acting a joy as well as a benefit.

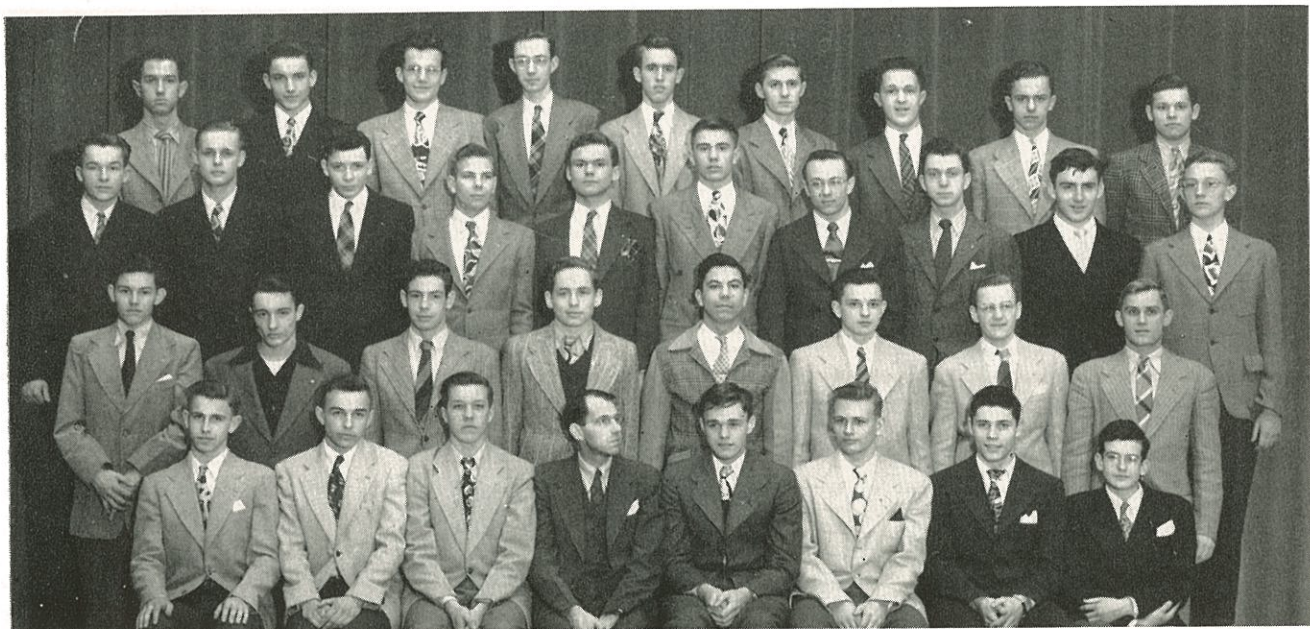

NATIONAL THESPIAN TROUPE 108

THE CHOIR

Our well-organized Girls' Choir is a great asset to the school. Its recitals in and out of school have been enthusiastically received and to Mr. McLaughlin we offer congratulations for developing such a charming group of singers. Of particular attraction are the programs offered during the Christmas and Easter seasons.

The Boys' Hi-Y, under Mr. Braunton's able direction, has provided an opportunity for boys to participate in creative recreational activities; to learn the true meaning of responsible citizenship; and to realize their obligations to maintain individual integrity, high moral standards, and social usefulness. The Deputation team delivered its annual message to nine churches this year.

BOYS' HI-Y

THE KENISCOPE

The Keniscope is a new journalistic activity replacing the former Rostrum. An attempt was made this year to present material to the student body every two weeks with no thought of up-to-the-minute news but rather a mixture of the unusual and humorous with the more serious. The staff can be satisfied that its labors were appreciated in presenting to us a lively series of issues depicting our school life both in writing and in pictorial form.

There was only one thing wrong with the Commercial Club this year—all girls, no boys—but then, Messrs. Grefe and Witzig didn't mind.

All these business-minded students furthered their knowledge through practical application, such as ticket selling, ushering, and the like. Since its introduction in 1945, this group has steadily grown in popularity and prestige.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

DEBATE CLUB

With the topic of Compulsory Arbitration of Labor Disputes in mind, the members of this year's debate club sought to make a connection between their brain power and any oratorical ability they could muster.

Under the guidance of their able coach, Mr. William Branton, they held weekly meetings for explanatory expansion of the above-mentioned topic. The affirmative of George Weber and Dean Bensley, and the negative of Art Otten and Bill Nye, surely were a challenge to any school's debate team.

D. Bensley, S. Nye, A. Otten, G. Weber, Mr. Branton, Adviser.

This year the "Followers of Romulus" saw the great melodrama "The Last Days of Pompeii." However, everyone agreed with Miss Barrows that it was the best comedy in years.

This season was spent discussing the highlights in the lives of famous Romans.

And oh, those word games! How quick they are to show up that forgotten vocabulary! What principal parts do we remember—bugo, bugere, ichi, scratchum—. Oh, well!

APOSTULI ROMULI

BOOK PAGES

This novel name was selected from many entries submitted in the library club name contest. The members of this club are students formerly baffled by the Dewey Decimal System but permanently fascinated by the endless rows of books. Mrs. Peck and Miss Easterbrook have them so well versed that they sound very sincere when they angrily whisper "You don't talk aloud in the library!" or "No! we don't subscribe to the Police Gazette!"

"The Good Neighbors" have had a gay old time this year for their $1.25 plus. They've seen movies, listened to a real Spanish band, and were enchanted over Miss Tjeerdsma's Costa Rican escapades—hmmm—. Señorita Alvord's familiar, "Ay de mí!" has kept all her budding Spaniards in line throughout the year.

LOS BUENOS VECINOS

ENTRE NOUS

Pour parler français . . . to learn to converse in French . . . is the purpose of the French Club. A better understanding of the language, customs and history of the country whose tongue they are studying is offered the members through a liberal use of records, plays and movies. The records especially have provided an imaginary trip in which the family life and cities of France are described. Mlle. Gendreau, the club adviser, has been fortunate in having such good officers as "Maurice" Musty, le president, Louis Nelso, le sous-president, and Suzanne Chesley, le secrétaire. Eh, voilà!

Hats off to the group that uses as much Sloan's Liniment as the football team. They hop around like jack rabbits and shout their lungs out the entire grid season.

With Mary Markham as head cheerleader, they almost got the crowds to make as much noise as they made.

This was the first time in many years that Kenmore was represented by such a large and colorful band. Complete with color guards and majorettes it did some very impressive parade and formation marching in rain and shine during our football season. Mr. Hann also directed our band in some concert band work in conjunction with the bands of neighboring high schools.

Boys in KHS interested in becoming muscle men are given the opportunity to train in this direction every Thursday night in the Judo Club. Here you'll see some of the American leaders of tomorrow all standing on their ears. Mr. Stark is certainly getting them ready to tackle anything—but say, what about us girls?

BOYS' JUDO CLUB

GIRLS' LETTER CLUB

This group is composed of girls proficient in athletics. To become a member, a girl must win a letter in a team or individual sport. One could see all the Letter Club girls selling refreshments at football and basketball games. Because of this a rather nice feature is that no dues are required—the club is financially self-sufficient.

Since its instigation in KHS last year, this club's membership has steadily increased. In its ranks are found the novice and the expert(?) both playing under the watchful eye of Miss Schuler and Mr. Miller. Yes—every Thursday evening the birds are flying around the gymnasium and believe it or not—some even go over the net.

BADMINTON CLUB

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club consists of boys who have earned a letter in an inter-school sport. Its purpose is to promote a high standard of integrity and sportsmanship in Kenmore High School and to foster a spirit of cooperation and understanding in all phases of athletics, in the classroom and in all school activities. This year's officers are: President—Lou Paar, Vice-President—Bill Doerr, Secretary—Dick Coates, and Treasurer—Tom Evans. The club's adviser is Mr. Bollier.

The Girls' Y-Teens is an organization affiliated with the Y. W. C. A. and under the leadership of Mrs. Terry Scott. The group has been quite active this year, presenting a fashion show and holding a candy sale among other things. At a regular meeting the girls played cards or games, in other words, had a "hen" session; at special meetings they often had cosmetic parties, etc.—watch out, boys!

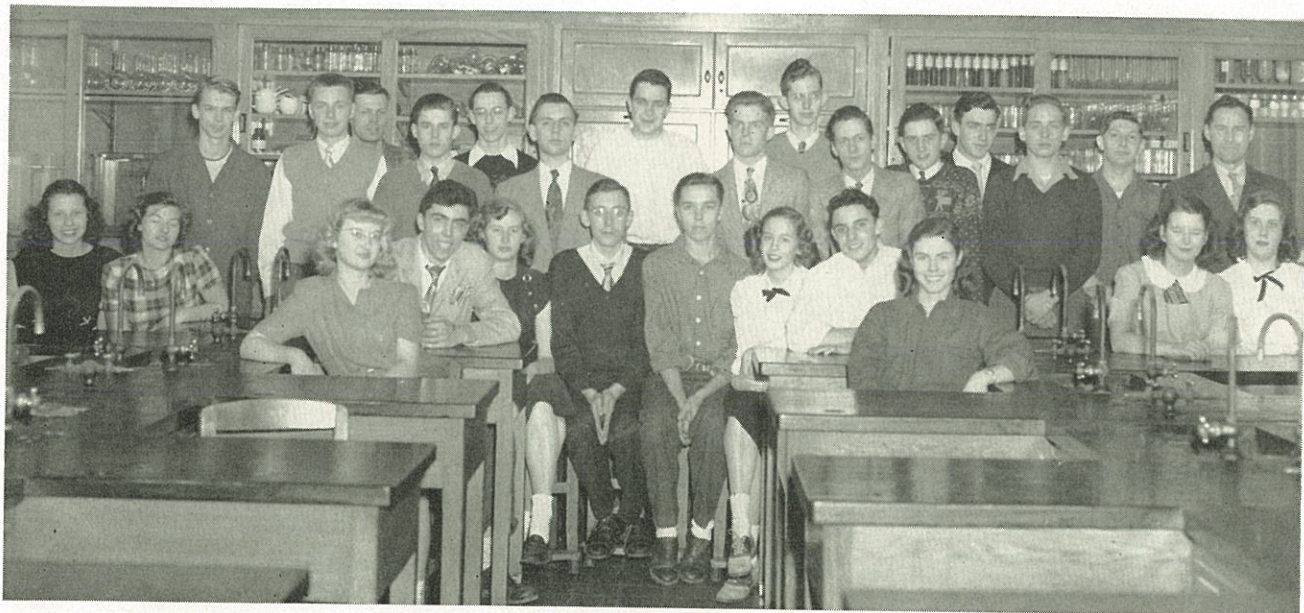

GIRLS' Y-TEENS

RIFLE CLUB

Our "sharpshooters" club has carried on under the direction of Mr. Cutter again this year. A call was sent out for girl members and, as you may see, something new has been added. With their assistance the team came out on top in local competition and placed second in the western New York meet. In the individual matches Bill Nye placed fourth and John Nye placed fifth. This is nice shooting!

The Science Club was very active this year and met several times a week under the auspices of Mr. Carl and Mr. Gladieux. It was probably one of the best-known of all the clubs in view of the periodic fumigation of the third floor. One of the objectives of the club was to prepare projects for the annual Science Congress. Projects undertaken ranged from quantitative analysis and protozoology to nuclear physics and aeronautics.

Once again the Kenmore "camera bugs" have assembled to use the facilities of our "popular" Junior High dark room. Mr. Dyer directs the varied activities . . . of its fifteen "chosen" members. At 7:30 every Thursday evening this year one could see all the hopeful pollywogs splashing around in our chlorinated water. With every other stroke, there'd be a foot in your face or a strange face leering at you from out of the deep—but was it fun!

It must be admitted though, that Miss Kauffman and Mr. Miller couldn't make swans out of all these ducks.

ART ROUND TABLE

Very interesting sights greeted all visitors to room 423 on Wednesday afternoons at 3:15. Miss Chase and the members of the Art Round Table experimented with different media, such as pastels, textile paints, clay, etc. Sometimes you might have been amused to see the faces of these future DaVincis smeared with a variety of colored paints and art paraphernalia, but this did not discourage these artists because such is the road to success.

Come 8:30 and the second shift of swimmers "plopped" into the pool—here we had big frogs in a little pond—.

This group was mostly composed either of those who had night owl instincts or who wanted to forget Friday's incomplete homework and scheduled history test.

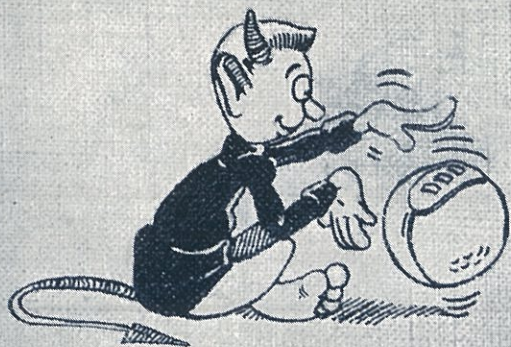

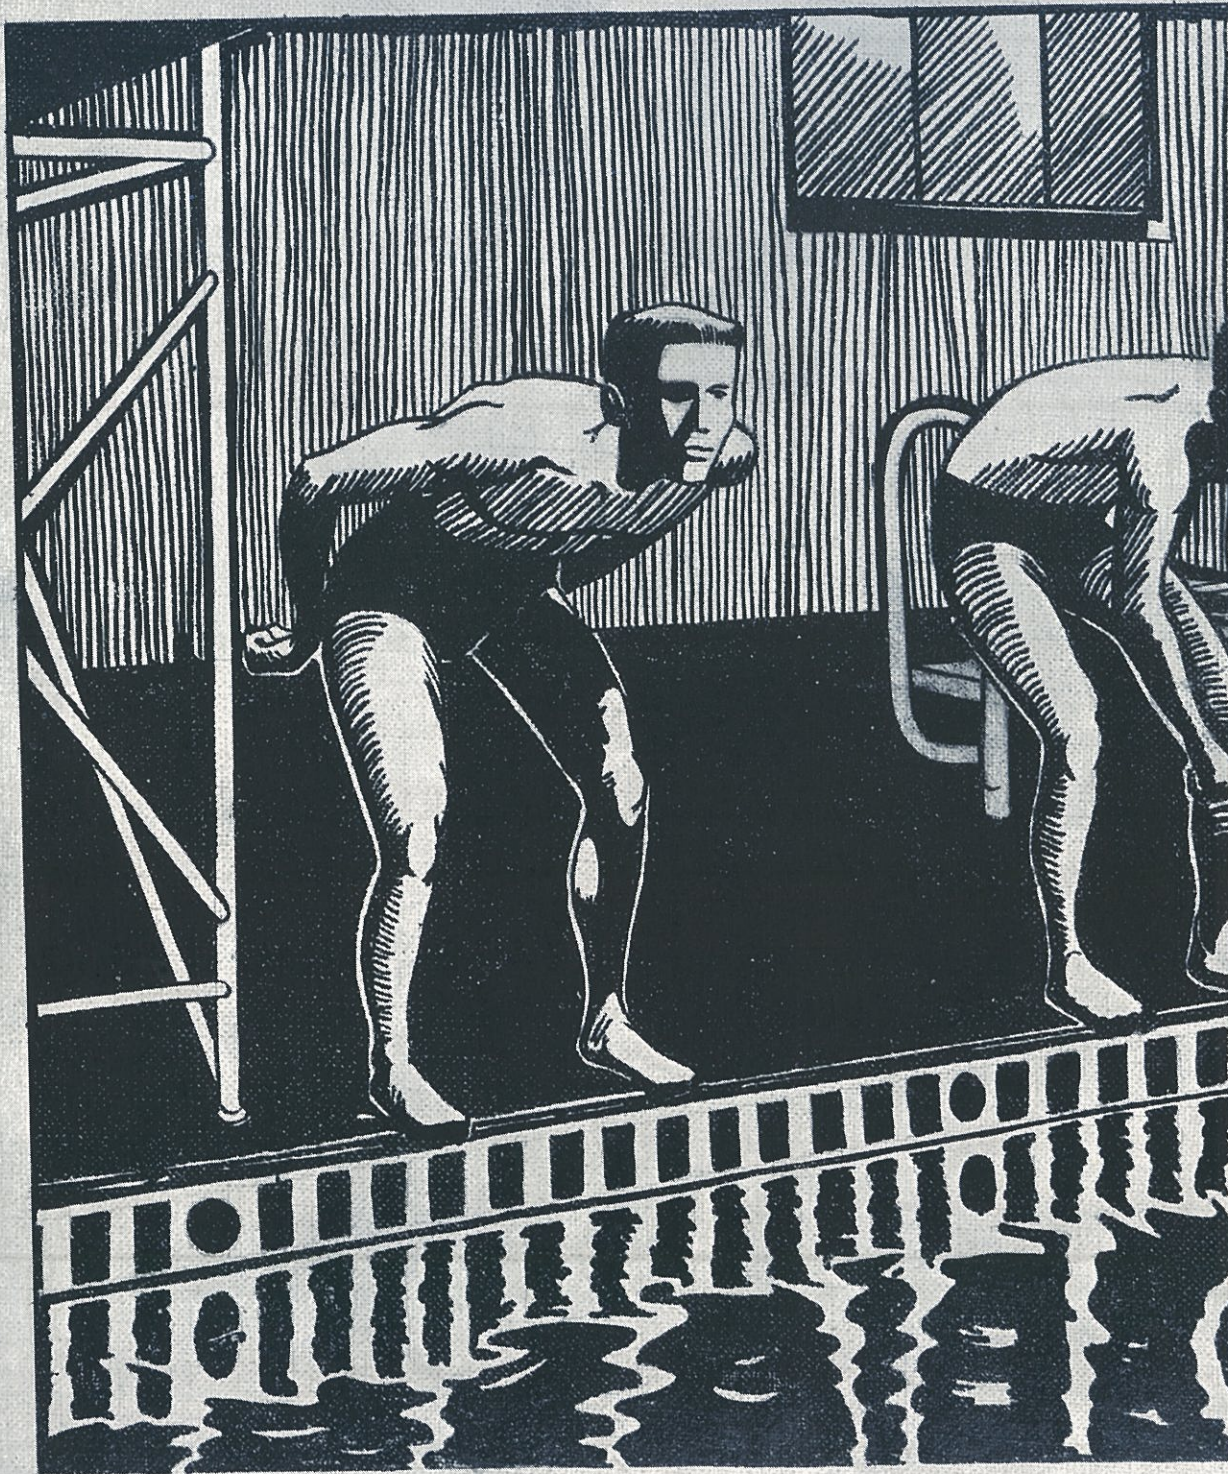

LATE SWIMMING CLUB

COOKING CLUB

Every Thursday night the aroma of home cooked food permeated the atmosphere of our good old Alma Mater. A group of industrious young ladies was found mixing this with that and coming out with, "What's this Miss Wojtowicz?" Whatever it was, Friday found some of the girls absent from school.

Although failing to win the NFL championship for the first time since 1942, our Blue Devils, ably coached by Bud Pitkin and Jules Yakapovich, managed to lead the league in scoring and with a little luck would not have had to be contented with second place in the standings.

The club started off like a ball of fire with a 14-0 win over Lockport. The following week Trott was trounced, 32-0. Things looked bad until Bill Doerr started the ball rolling as we licked a stubborn LaSalle eleven, 18-0.

But then came the stone wall in the form of the N. T. Lumberjacks, who avenged their 1946 defeat by edging us out, 12-0, at Civic Stadium.

From here on in we couldn't be stopped. Our Blue Devils romped over Jamestown, 37-6, Tonawanda, 25-0, Niagara Falls, 39-0, and finished out the season against Lackawanna with a crushing 25-0 victory.

Our success cannot be attributed to any one man. The first string of Podlucky, Neff, Wilson, Morog, Peehler, Fazekas, and Creighton, backed by Bill Bickerton, Bill Doerr, Captain Louie Paar, and John Svilokos, ably supported by Kirkwood, Elliott, Moelich, Fleishman, Burns, and the rest performed admirably under Pit's guidance.

The squad was beset by hard knocks all season, beginning with "Red" Peehler's sprained ankles, through five broken noses, to Paar, Wilson, Elliott, Morog, and Moelich, and ending with Joe Morog's broken collarbone, suffered against Tonawanda. But nothing could stop Joe. He went from his center post to become almost as good a manager—especially at cleaning muddy cleats.

These Blue Devil Juniors of ours, under the guiding hand of Coaches Oelkers and Witzig, came out victor in two of their five games. They defeated Lockport and Nichols, while Lackwanna, Tonawanda, and North Tonawanda edged them out.

These losses failed to mar their spirit, and many of these J. V. boys will make up victorious Kenmore teams of the future.

Among the standout performers were Dick Hermann, Jack Mullen, Louie Panezich, Jim Ballantyne and Bill Holler.

At the beginning of the current cage season the outlook for our Blue Devils was not too bright. Don Bartrip was intelligible and Coach Bollier could count on only four lettermen—Don Burns, Jack Wilson, Sam Robinson, and Captain Louie Paar.

The loss to Tonawanda in the opener did not help matters. The team picked up as they beat Lockport and Trott, but they bogged down and lost to a stubborn N. T. five. LaSalle was taken, but the Falls and Lackawanna edged us out as the first round ended.

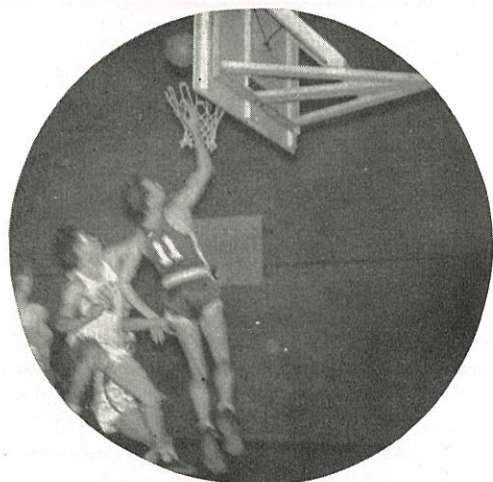

Burns came down with pneumonia and was out for the season and Robinson was home in bed as we lost again to Tonawanda. But Bartrip's intelligibility was up and Bob Utz returned from the Marines to spark us to five straight victories. Our loss to Lackawanna in the last game left us in a tie with Trott for fourth place. A playoff was held at N. T. and sparked by Utz's 18 points, we licked Trott in overtime 46-39.

For the third time in three years we were in the play-offs—but nobody was going to beat the Tonawanda five that night, so we ended up the season with an overall record of nine wins and seven defeats.

J. V. BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity, under the guidance of Coach Charlie Rogers, managed to win half of its fourteen games. Outstanding on this year's team were Dick Middleton, Jack Westcott, who was high scorer, and Don Mucha.

The experience these boys gained will show up in the future as they perform in our varsity blue and whites.

SWIMMING TEAM

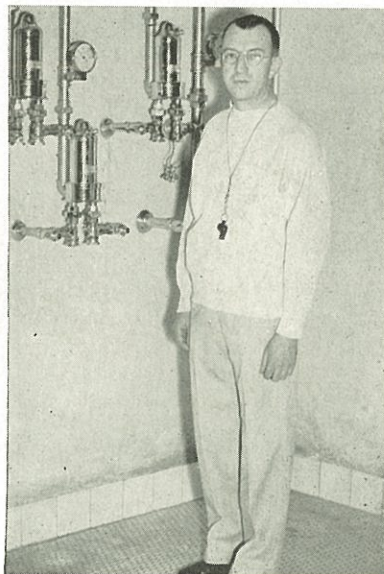

As practice began, Coach Charley Pohl realized he had a tremendous task ahead of him. Gone were the likes of Peck, Miller and company. On the returning squad were only six lettermen—Captain John Yacos, Jim Spencer, Gar Tomlin, Don Coon, Don Case, and Paul Gable. This number was lowered to three when Spencer was taken sick, Gable moved and Tomlin left for U. B. at mid-season.

But despite these hardships, our boys came through gallantly. Yacos, Coon, and Case were aided ably by Fred Corey, Jim Childress and Alan Vogt, each of whom could be counted on for points. Also vastly improved over last year was Jim Hicks, who surprised everyone by swimming so well that he managed to gain a position in the finals.

Through the season, our aquatic Blue Devils suffered losses only to Niagara Falls and North Tonawanda. In the finals we were edged out by N. T., 29-21.

Jim Childress, next year's captain, broke the school 100-yard breaststroke record. Yacos suffered only two defeats all season, one of these coming in the finals, which was won by Fred Corey.

All in all, the season was very successful, considering the problems which confronted us from the beginning.

MR. POHL

"B" SWIMMING TEAM

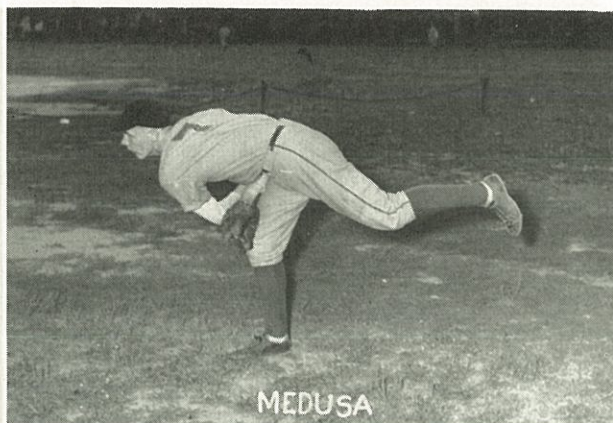

Our "B" swim team suffered only two defeats this season. This group acts as a basic training program for our future varsity aquatic Blue Devils.

Among the most outstanding members were Jack Klock, Tom Evans, John DiMartile and Henry Hutt.

With many outstanding sophomore swimmers on the team, the outlook for the future is very bright.

Under the guiding hand of coach Tom Kenny, our Baseball Blue Devils batted their way to the Niagara Frontier League championship, with the splendid record of twelve wins and only two losses.

Paced by the slugging of captain Ron Neff and the brilliant pitching of Johnny Theobald, we suffered losses only to Lackawanna and North Tonawanda, whom we played under protest. Both of these losses were avenged during the second round.

Our nine Blue Boys consisted of Hippo Wilson at first, Bill Bickerton at second, Louie Paar at short, Hugo McClatchey at third, Ronnie Neff catching, John Theobald pitching, and an outfield of Charlie "Cheaters" Van Deusen, Don Mucha, and next year's captain Bill Doerr. This group was ably supported by Wimpy Snyder, Louie Panezich, and Lefty Bob Tait.

TRACK

Few persons realized when Chester Bollier came to Kenmore as track coach in 1940 what an outstanding man they were getting. In the eight years since then, he has lost neither a championship nor a single meet. This is undoubtedly one of the finest high school records in the country.

MR. BOLLIER, Coach
BILL DOERR, Captain

The year 1947 saw another star-studded Kenmore aggregation rack up their eighth successive undefeated season. Under the inspiring leadership of Captain John Svilokos, who led the team in scoring and also established a new school record in the pole vault, the blue-clad trackmen rolled over all opposition, finally winning the Zone Six crown, emblematic of track supremacy in Western New York. This year's zone meet was one of the most exciting of all. The outcome was in doubt until the last relay race was won by our cinder Blue Devils. When the result was announced, a mighty shout was heard from the Kenmore adherents—we had won by the narrow margin of $32\frac{1}{2}$ to Olean's 28.

There were several other outstanding men on this team who helped to make the season a successful one. John Hill won every mile race except the final at Olean, while Steve Swagel did the same in the hurdles. Standout sprinters were Dick Coates, George Miller, Bill Doerr and Lew Newhard. In the middle distance race we were represented by Sam Robinson, Joe Yacos, and Paul Burdick. Also important cogs in the Kenmore machine were George Rovison, Dave Bouman, Eddie Fleischmann, and Bernie Graham. Every one of these contributed to make this a successful season in all respects.

First Row: T. Moore, D. Wiles, J. Yacos, P. Burdick, Joe Yacos, S. Swagel, W. Doerr, Captain; R. Coates, J. Robinson, H. Kirkwood, D. MacKellar, W. Bickerton, R. Byers. Second Row: J. Westcott, E. TENNIS

Tennis returned to Kenmore for the first time since 1942. Although the team did not enjoy an especially successful season in the matter of wins and losses, the interest shown indicated a bright future looming not too far distant.

The team, coached by Mr. Wessell, was generally as follows: First singles, Captain Dick Manz; second singles, Dick Newell; third singles, Jim Alexander; first doubles, Carl Masten, Frank Less; second doubles, Bob Stine, Frank Moelich.

This year's golf team played in five matches, one with East Aurora and two each with Lackawanna and DeVeaux. The squad managed to win one of these matches, that against DeVeaux.

But their record is no indication of the future, since this is the first team since 1942. The spirit and determination this team displayed will show up in years to come.

Able coached by Mr. Miller, the squad consisted of Jim Voisiniet, who was high scorer, Jack Harbrecht, Blake Butler, Harold Conshafter, and Bob Forrest.

GIRLS' SPORTS

This year much more attention has been focused on girls' sports in Kenmore High. Under the excellent guidance of Miss Kauffman and Miss Schuler a greater variety of sports has been added to the curriculum and more skills have been mastered. Kenmore saw the beginning of its first girls' tennis team last fall, and girls' tumbling was organized. Besides the ever increasing scope of activities, the girls' sports program continues to hold its position as an important part of the extracurricular program of Kenmore High.

TENNIS CHAMPION

MARY HELFERT

BADMINTON CHAMPIONS

These four girls have won the recognition of being the badminton champions of the school. Through their proficiency in this sport they easily outclassed all other competition.

M. Wilson, A. Switzer, R. Rey, J. Scharff.

BASKETBALL

Each year the girls of the school form many teams which play against each other until all but one are eliminated. The four Senior teams in the picture represent those who will participate in the play-offs to determine the winning team.
