

S.O.S. examples:

		SEVERITY	OWNERSHIP	SUPPORT
1	A single mother in your group is feeling financial pressure. Her bills are paid, but there isn't much extra. Her home is falling behind on repairs. She has some family and friends, but they are not deeply involved in solving her issues. She's working hard, but doesn't have the skills she needs to keep up the home.	☐	☐	☐
2	A man in your group confessed to cheating on his wife. He describes it as a moment of weakness, it was a one-time occurrence, and he confessed without getting caught. He and his wife are both in Small Group. They have a wide network of friends and family, but don't always receive biblical advice from them.	☐	☐	☐
3	A woman in your group has a good job, but a difficult boss. Her boss's language is vulgar, her expectations are unreasonable, and she belittles her employees. The woman moved from out of state to take this job. She doesn't have friends or family in the area. She regularly "vents" to the group about her boss, but doesn't take steps to address the issue.	☐	☐	☐
4	A family in your Small Group is homeless. Mom and Dad don't have jobs, and they aren't looking for jobs. They are regularly asking the Small Group for financial help, but never taking advice. Many of their friends and family have cut them off out of frustration.	☐	☐	☐