homecoming week 2012

Steve Blatner with the Devil show your spirit!

This year Kenmore West's Homecoming week was filled with more spirit than ever! Each day of the week consisted of a new theme. Tuesday: Jersey Day, Wednesday: '80s Day, Thursday was Crazy Socks Day, and finally, finishing off the week was Blue and White Day. Student Council's entrance at the Pep Rally that Friday began a whirlwind of cheers and screams, showing off our Kenmore West spirt. Spirit Week shines the spotlight on the best of Ken-West and never fails to bring us closer together as a student body. The Homecoming Dance on Friday night was a bright and lively start to the weekend. Excitement built throughout the week leading up to the famous West vs. East football game in which the Blue Devils anihilated the Ken-East Bulldogs in a crushing 39-8 victory.

KENMORE WEST
stands together

Make A Stand.

On February 10th, 2012, Kenmore West students came to "Stand Together" against bullying in all forms.

VE PLEDGE TO:

1. Refrain from bullying of any kind for any reason.
2. Treat others with respect.
3. Intervene, if I can safely do so or tell an adult.
4. Encourage others to Stand Together against bullying.

FALL DANCES

The Fall Dances were a blast, starting off the 2011-2012 school year with the Welcom Back Dance and the Blackout Dance! The Welcome Back Dance saw a huge turnout was a great way for people to reconnect with classmates they hadn't seen all summer. Students danced their hearts out, leaving behind, for one night, the September stress brought about by the start of a new school The Blackout Dance was a unique opportu for students to bring out their brightest clo When the room went black it became clear neon was the theme for the night. There wa better way to start off a brand new year.

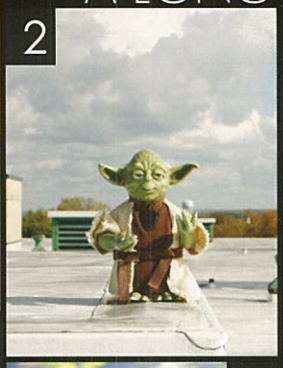
FAR, FAR AW

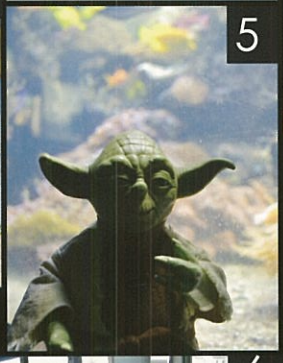
Yoda took a turn for adventure this year a starting with a stealth escape from a domina substitute teacher. Although change is no surpri this seasoned traveller of the Yoda still expressed concern boarding a plane to Baltimor MD, or even entering a dread Math class! Either way, Yod brought a camera with him wherever he went. He was ki enough to let us view the pictures after his travels ceas It's amazing where Yoda wer what Yoda saw, and who Yo met along the way!

Edgar Allan Poe's formal grave, Baltimore, MD

"Good for the soul, travelling is."

A LONG WAY FROM DAGOBAH





1 Yoda, hard at work in one of our Math rooms here at Kenmore West. He had a lovely time travelling the various hidden gems of West's classrooms.

2 Yoda then decided to take a stroll on the roof of the school. He saw all the way to the countryside, the skyline of Buffalo, Lake Erie, and much, much more!

3 Cheers! Yoda took a trip across the pond to London, and took a walk along the Thames!

4 Yoda soon switched gears and took a ride to Hoyt Lake in the City of Buffalo.

5 Yoda began his swim with the fish at the Maryland Aquarium in Baltimore, MD.

6 Yoda heading with the Ski Club crew to Holiday Valley!

Yoda's whirlwind adventures truly n with Senior Stacey Rogers who, at the f her Junior year, took Yoda along on ummer vacation.

"We played with Yoda all the time in
" Stacey recalled, "so we thought it d be fun to take him over the summer."

When we all returned in September, was back to Mr. Rigney's classroom a photo journal documenting all of his ner-time adventures.

English Dept. 2012 Awards

Every year, students submit their work in hopes of recieving one of Kenmore West's English Department Writing Awards. In the past, there were only three awards a student could potentially earn. However due to the unfortunate and untimely death of one of ou English department's most beloved teacher Mr. Dugan in 2010, a new award was adde The teachers selected to bare the name of award have all taught at Kenmore West as English teachers in the past. Now, they are either retired or teaching at another school. Despite their absense from West, they have made a lasting impression on the student body, still encouraging them to continue creating, and writing, as well as submitting their work to the English Department Award at Kenmore West.

"Hello Gorgeous!"

Yelled the 32 member cast, crew, and directors, as they threw their hands in the air, beginning the pre-show ritual, lead by Directer, Mr. Jarosz. Circled together backstage, nerves and excitement filled the air. Like clock work, 7:30 came and the orchestra began playing the overture as the cast and crew took their places behind the curtain. It was Thursday, March 8: Opening Night. For three months, everyone involved in the production of Funny Girl worked long and hard, memorizing lines, building the set, learning the music, perfecting the choreography. As the overture came to an end, the filled house began applauding, giving everyone in the show an instant adrenaline rush. Taking a deep breathe, the cast walked out on stage...

"The game of life is a lot like football. You have to tackle your problems, block your fears, and score your point when you get the opportunity. The group of guys that were on the team for the season turned into family. That's why we were successful and I'm very happy for the group we had. I would never trade that and we all ride together as a family."

"This was an extremely fun year, my teammates and I had a great time coming to practice everyday. We joked around a lot, but, we were also very serious when it came to game day. This year was very successful, and one that will be remembered."
- Nicholas Wojnar

"This season was a lot of fun. We had a very successful season and we had a great time doing it. I look forward to playing varsity with the team next year, as we can be more successful in the future."
- Adam Fron

"This year was really fun. Our team had a lot of games. Our coaches were great and beating Kenmore East was definitely one of the best memories of the year. I hope to play with these guys on varsity."

The Kenmore Women's Hockey team began their 2011 season on a high note after beating the 2010 League Champions team, Williamsville. Captain, and senior, Kate Miller, was proud of the younger payers who, "stepped up, and filled the rolls of the seniors we had lost. [Goalies] Kaitlyn Simmons, and Lauren Pray put on some great performances to keep us in the game." Together, the girls from Kenmore East and Kenmore West, became a team who made a name for themselves. "Overall, we had a pretty successful season."

Join the Winners at Kenmore West was held on Thursday, March 15th, from 7-10pm. This is a yearly event in which each class competes against the others in wild relay races and crazy games. Class t-shirts went on sale in all lunches and everyone who attended Join the Winners had to wear the color shirt that corresponded with their respective class. Seniors were blue, Juniors; white, Sohpomores; red, and Freshmen; yellow. The purpose of Join the Winners is to offer students a fun-filled night while raising money for a great cause. The cost of admission was $10.00 and all of the proceeds were donated to the Kids Escaping Drugs Telethon to benefit the W.N.Y. Renaissance House. This residential facility helps teens to end their dependence on drugs and alcohol. It also gives the youth the counseling and assistance they need to progress in their education and to develop life long positive behaviors and goals. This year, Kenmore West raised around $2,000.00 for Channel 2's "Kids Escaping Drugs" Campaign.

Besides helping a good cause, each class had an extra incentive to win because with each relay race victory came the privilege of choosing a teacher from a list who would represent their class in the faculty basketball game the following week. The activities were intense and suspenseful, especially the games of Mission Impossible and the Hula Hoop challenge which involved every student rather than a single team of students. The night was lively and full of cheer, laughter, and friendly competition.

Congratulations Kenmore West class of 2012

Legacy Studios

55 Piveview Drive, Suite
Amherst, NY 14

Sincere Thank You...

r sure has been a change! The majority of the Kenitorial staff is brand new. We also had new software and omputers to contend with….what a year! All in all, I wouldn't have missed it for anything. As a teacher, it ally nice to watch students grow, learn and create something. My role as an advisor is a bit unique in that, I know these kids as students, but we spend a remarkable amount of time together outside of class working ;, so I know them from that vantage point as well. What a terrific job to have! I learn from them daily and ith them hourly. I will miss those that move on very much.

ne Explore, Dream, Discover came from a quote by Mark Twain. It encompasses all that we experience here ore West, yes WE. Every time a student attempts a new equation or a teacher tries a new lesson, we are g what works and what doesn't. We dream about the future and what we want to achieve or what we want ents to achieve. And we discover what we are truly made of and what great things we can accomplish e try. I was impressed with this theme for those reasons.

Paige and Rachel, four years is a long time and Cassie and Deanna, can you believe three years have gone dy? It won't be the same without you. I will miss you terribly. (It certainly won't be the same without eing "Kiefferized.") my "extra period" kids, you know how invaluable your time was to this project. My gratitude is immean we have "The Boys." Anything and everything that you were asked to do (and re-do) you handled lly and with only minor grumblings. Your expertise has made this a successful project!

girls, it is hard to believe that you won't be here with me next year. This space will be empty without you. e good to yourselves and go out into the world and make me proud!

rning "gluttens for punishment," you need to carry the torch now. I know we are in capable hands next ɔher Scinta, thank you for taking such beautiful pictures at our plays. Your photos make the yearbook extra Friends, a very special thank you for putting up with us and checking to make sure I have my keys! ;)

ff, your patience and expertise with the glitches that we encountered have been a gift. I thank you from the ɔf my heart.

ans, thank you for working around us so often while we work into the night and being so accommodating e are in your way. A special thank you to Tim and Alex, for delivering things to Lab 3 as soon as they come n case they are important. Bob for always making sure we have the time that we need in the lab.

for checking in to make sure we are comfortable and for being so thoughtful every day, we are lucky to u.

y, thank you for knowing what my sighs mean and running interference-PRICELESS!

ıinistration of Kenmore West, thank you for trusting me to do this job and supporting me whenever I have ı do a special photo shoot.

taff, a huge thank you for fielding phone calls and taking many messages. I cannot tell you how much I ıte your help. A special note to Marie: I WILL MISS YOU SO MUCH!

ılty and staff, coaches and club advisors at Kenmore West, thank you for your patience with our new crew r helpfulness in getting photos!

ınother year down partner! Thanks for being in the trenches with me year after year.

usband and my boys, thank you for giving me the time that I needed to complete this project, for the time while I was on deadline and your kindness and thoughtfulness all the time.

; been a year that I have learned a lot, have lost a lot and have been grateful for a lot. MLR-I will miss you
